MARK REDISKE
DISTILLATION

DECEMBER 3 – 24, 2015

Mark Rediske
Distillation

This body of work is influenced by memories of landscape during my formative years in Minnesota - specifically, the relationship of sky, water and vista so prevalent in the land of 10,000 lakes. This body of work represents a departure in that all the works are abstract - color field landscapes. I have deliberately made a distillation of form to atmosphere and color in an effort to evoke a mystic transformation of time, place and memory. Also, intense color scattered in a grey brown landscape is visually rewarding to me.
