PROJECTS

Civic Works: Established in 2003 to encompass both artworks by Dan Dubowitz, and cultural masterplan projects lead by Dan Dubowitz.

2013-2014: 'The Institute of Public Information'. Photography-based provocation project in conjunction with the regeneration of Oldham.

2013: Cultural Masterplanner for London's South Bank, Vauxhall to Battersea Power Station.

2012/2013: 'Citizen Manchester'. Photographic series exploring transformations of civic buildings and how they reshape the psyche of a city and its relationships with its citizens. To be published Manchester University Press 2014.

2011-present: 'Megalomania'. Fordlandia, Henry Ford's new town in the Amazon, is the first series in a long term project to explore megalomania in contemporary culture worldwide, through seven projects.

2011: 'The Peeps Show', in collaboration with the Hallé Orchestra. Live installations and new arrangements in wastelands across Ancoats, July 2011.

2005/10: Fascismo Abbandonato'. 12 photographic series rediscovering Mussolini's fascist holiday camps for children, in ruins, across Italy. Published Dewi Lewis Publishing 2010.

2003/10: Lead artist for the regeneration of Ancoats, Manchester, UK. The project started out with a photographic series 'The Presence of Absence' which formed the basis for two permanent artworks: 'The Peeps', a city scale permanent artwork, comprising a series of peepholes to stumble across in permanently walled up spaces throughout the area and the 'Cutting Room' a new public square.

2009: 'The Potteries'. An ongoing photographic series exploring the city's derelict buildings and potteries on the eve of a major regeneration of the subregion. Part of the first British Ceramics Biennial. One of a series of projects developed as Cultural Masterplanner for Stoke on Trent.

2008/12: 'After the Occupation'. The Baltics, a photographic series with writer Tim Abrahams.

2007/11: 'If The Invader Comes' and 'Tattered Outlaws of History'. Collaboration with choreographer Fearghus O'Conchuir: performance that unites the family of 12 Martello towers exhibited in Skerries tower, Dublin, July-September 2009, touring 2011.

2006: Cultural Masterplanner for the regeneration of Scotswood, Newcastle Expo; 'Newtopia'.

2003/08: Cultural Masterplanner for the regeneration of Sunderland: programme of pilot projects and delivery plan for 'The Cultural Masterplan for Sunderland'.

2000/05: 'Wastelands' photographic projects including: Ellis Island, NYC; Havana, Cuba; St Francis Monastery, Manchester; Albergo dei Poveri, Naples; Orford Ness, UK; Blue Circle, Larne, N.Ireland; Cardross, Scotland.
