SHERI PAISLEY

Sheri Paisley's work stems from an interest in wind: the atmosphere in motion. Her work pulls in and out of focus, from windswept, loosely rendered landscape to abstraction. Fine attention to light and its stippling effect is built up through layers throughout a wide variety of landscapes and atmospheric moods. The work is intended to serve as a source of respite, and aids with meditation. It grows with the viewer over time, shifting through the days as the light changes. Paisley lives with Aphantasia (internal blindness or no "mind's eye") and works from her own many photographs.

Paisley received a BFA from Emily Carr University of Art and Design in 1998 and began exhibiting with Bau-Xi Gallery in 2002. She lives and works on Vancouver Island, British Columbia. Sheri Paisley has exhibited in Europe, New York, Los Angeles, Seattle, Toronto and Vancouver. Her work has been placed in numerous private collections across North America and Europe, and in permanent collections with Emaar Properties, Dubai, UAE, Enunciate Conferencing, Toronto Dominion Bank, UBC Psychiatric Hospital, Vancouver General Hospital, St. Paul's Hospital in Vancouver, BC. and Swedish Hospital in Seattle.
