

STEVEN NEDERVEEN

b. 1971

Steven Nederveen (b. 1971, Edmonton, AB) is a well-known Canadian Toronto-based artist, whose work is featured internationally in galleries, art fairs, magazines, and many private collections. Nederveen's work deals with the passage of time, a theme stemming from his own practice of meditation. These moments of peaceful clarity lead the artist to draw connections between our natural environment and aspects of spirituality through his artistic process of combining painting and photography. By blurring the lines between photograph and painting, Nederveen develops a magical realism that inspires us to see the world with new eyes. By distressing and aging the work he creates the sense of past and present; of struggle and transformation. A glass-like layer of resin coats each piece, enhancing the clarity of the image and reflecting the viewer into the work.
