STEVEN NEDERVEEN

Canadian [b. 1971]

Born in Edmonton, Alberta, Steven Nederveen is a Canadian mixed-media artist whose practice is shaped by a sustained engagement with meditation and the lived experience of time. Through the careful fusion of painting and photography, he explores moments of stillness that reveal subtle correspondences between the natural world and spiritual awareness. Nederveen's work deliberately destabilizes the boundary between mediums, allowing images to hover between observation and imagination. The resulting sense of magical realism invites viewers to reconsider the landscape not as a fixed place, but as a contemplative, evolving state of perception.

Steven Nederveen's work is featured internationally in galleries, art fairs and magazines, and is part of private and public collections including Air Canada, the House of Armani, and the Canadian embassy in Iceland.
